A Woman of Position Offers to Marry the South African Raider or to Give Him One of Two Marriageable Daughters as a Wife.

By Julian Ralph. London, Feb. 27.-The immense disgust of the whole British nation over the appointment of Alfred Austin to the position of Poet Laureate finds expression in the daily newspapers and music halls, and has at last found vent in Parliament. In the House of Commons to-day Mr.

Mr. A. J. Balfour, Government leader of the House, replied:

Poet Laureate is £70 a year, charged to the civil list. I do not think there is any department of the government specifically qualified to exercise the duty of poetical ceusor."

The Fall Mall Gazette, however, speaks of such negotiations going on and says that if they are carried through France will offer to abandon her interests in Newfoundland in exchange for concessions in Egypt.
